LEGAL NOTICE

it is the intention of the Board of Supervisors of Appomattox County, Virginia to adopt at its meeting to be held on Friday, March 10, 1978 at 1:30 p.m. the following ordinance to-wit:

An Ordinance to be Known as a Loitering in Public Places Ordinance.

It shall be unlawful for any person to loiter in or upon or around any public place, public building or public grounds, highway, street, park or other public place or obstruct the access to any public building or public place or any part thereof.

For the purposes of this section, the term "loiter" shall encompass and be defined, but shall not necessarily be limited to, one or more of the following acts:

(1) Obstruction of the free unhampered passage of pedestrians or vehicles;

(2) Obstructing, molesting or interfering with any person lawfully upon any highway, street, park or other public place;

(3) Remaining idle in essentially one location without being able to establish or having a legitimate business or purpose in remaining at such place or, by conduct, exhibiting the absence of a lawful purpose in so remaining at such place as hereinfore set forth in this statute for no obvious reason;

(4) Refusing to move on when so requested by an officer of the law, provided the officer of the law has exercised his authority reasonably under the circumstances in order to preserve or promote public peace and order.

PENALTY. Any person who violates the preceding section and upon conviction thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished in accordance with Section 18.2-11 (d) of the Code of Virginia which is incorporated by reference into this section.

ADOPTION OF CODE

An ordinance adopting a revision and codification of the ordinances of the County of Appomattox, Virginia, entitled "The Code of the County of Appomattox, Virginia," providing for the repeal of certain ordinances not included therein, with certain exceptions, and for other purposes hereinafter set out.

Be it ordained by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Appomattox, Virginia:

Section 1. There is hereby adopted by the Board of Supervisors that certain Code entitled "The Code of the County of Appomattox, Virginia," containing certain ordinances of a general and permanent nature as compiled, consolidated, codified and indexed in Chapters 1 to 17, both inclusive, of which Code not less than one copy has been now filed in the office of the Clerk of the County for not less than two weeks.

Section 2. The provisions of such Code shall be in force on and after March 10, 1978, and all ordinances of a general and permanent nature adopted on final reading and passage on or before September 29, 1977, and not contained in such Code are hereby repealed from and after March 10, 1978 except as hereinafter provided.

Section 3. The repeal provided for in the preceding section of this ordinance shall not affect any offense or act committed or done or any contract or right established or accruing before March 10, 1978; nor shall it affect any prosecution, suit or proceeding pending or any judgment rendered prior to March 10, 1978; nor shall such repeal affect any ordinance or resolution promising or guaranteeing the payment of money for the County or authorizing the issue of any bonds of the County or any evidence of the County's indebtedness or any contract or obligation assumed by the County; nor shall it affect any annual tax levy; nor shall it affect any right or franchise conferred by ordinance or resolution of the County on any person or corporation; nor shall it affect, any ordinances adopted for purposes which have been consummated; nor shall it affect any ordinance which is temporary, although general in effect, or special, although permanent in effect; nor shall it affect any ordinance relating to the salaries of the County's officers or employees; nor shall it affect any ordinance naming, renaming, opening, accepting or vacating streets or alleys in the County; nor shall it affect any ordinance relating to zoning; nor shall it affect any ordinance adopted on final reading and passage after September 29, 1977.

Section 4. It is hereby declared to be the intention of the Board of Supervisors that the sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses and phrases of this ordinance and the Code hereby adopted are severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this ordinance or the Code hereby adopted shall be declared unconstitutional or otherwise invalid by the valid judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect any of the remaining phrases, clauses, sentences, paragraphs and sections of this ordinance or the Code hereby adopted.

YOUNG BOXING HOPEFULS shown above from left are: Cecil Hunter, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter, Randy St. John, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert St. John, Jeff Chauncey, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Chauncey, Gary Ferguson, 11, son of Mrs. Joyce Ferguson, and Jimmy Martin, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Martin.

According to Marc Stone, instructor, these young men are really working hard to learn the fundamentals of boxing.

The Appomattox Boxing Club, sponsored by the Jaycees, is in its first year and boasts an enrollment of 42. Jayeee President Raymond Mullins has issued a plea for more coaches and trainers and requests that anyone having any experience in boxing and who is willing to donate several hours a week, contact him or come by the Appomattox Depot on Monday or Wednesday night or Saturday morning.

Exercise bicycles are badly needed for training purposes and the loan or donation of one or more will be appreciated.

A regulation size ring is under construction and the fighters will soon be practicing what they have been taught. During the next several months there will be tournaments in Appomattox, Charlotte and Richmond with the State Tournament scheduled in Norfolk on April 21.
